

Valentine's Day Heart Hunt

Celebrate Valentine's Day with a fun scavenger hunt to learn about God's love. Hide these riddles along with a few fun treats around the house. Edit the riddles depending on the ages and number of children.

Hello _____
Happy Valentine's Day!
To learn about true love
I have a little game for you to play.

Eight hearts like this one
Have been hidden for you
To find them
You must read the clue.

The first heart is hiding
In the place that you sleep
Under a pillow and blanket
That you love to keep

#1

Good job _____!
You have found the first treat
The next one is hiding
By Daddy's stinky shoes for his feet

#2

Boy oh boy
You sure are smart!
Your next surprise is waiting
Where you keep crayons for art.

#3

Wow! You are good.
Can you find my next surprise?
I hid it with Mommy's make-up
For her lips, cheeks, and eyes.

#4

Not only are you smart
You are really fast
You'll find this next one
Behind pictures from the past

#5

Your next treat is for you to share
To find the next surprise
Search where Mommy puts away
Your underwear!

#6

Great Job!
You are doing so good.
The next treat is hidden in a cold place where you keep your food.

#7

For your final treat
You will have to search deep into your heart
Where true love lives
And real beauty starts.
Candies are sweet
And games are fun
Now look into your Bible
And our fun game will be done.

#8

_____ you are so special!
God made you that way!
You can spread love too
By being kind in what you do and say.
When it gets hard know that God is always near
If you just pray and ask, God will always hear.

#9

Thank you to Amy from TraurigsinTraining.com for allowing me to adapt her riddles and idea.